Derby's Corner

Here we are in November already and again a busy month for us with the Turkey Shoot and the annual El Dorado Breakfast and Tournament.

November is our membership renewal month. Just a reminder that dues are to be in by Nov. 30th for 2008 at $55.00. Dues for 2008 received after Nov. 30th will be $65.00. This is because our relationship with PLGA calls for a Nov. 30 cutoff. We have been through this for many years, so let's all pay by Nov. 30th.

We have around 20 new members this year so I just want to mention to them all of our activities. We have a tournament every month, some of which are played at Eldorado, Skylinks & Recreation Park. Also our home and home with David Baker Men's Club. Weekend play is ongoing through out the year. And of course, John McCann has his tournament the first Tuesday of each month preceding our club meeting. That is a lot of golf available to our members at a reasonable cost. Thanks to Bob Nelson & Dennis for all their work on keeping these tournaments on track.

See you on the tee.
Don Derby
SCMC President

Alfred "Pete" Petrilli

Our very good friend and golfing buddy, Pete Petrilli, passed away on November 10th. He was 87 years old.

Pete was a longstanding member of SCMC, having joined in 1958. He was the club president in 1978 and was very active and influential in all matters regarding the activities of the club, the layout of the course, where trees should be planted, etc.

Pete was a real gentleman and a good sport. An excellent golfer, he, among other things, had nine holes-in-one in his golfing career, most of which he made with an ugly but efficient putter manufactured in his workshop at home.

Pete shall be sorely missed by his wife Betty, children, grandchildren and great grandchildren and by all of us who had the pleasure of knowing and playing with him.
